

“It ain’t easy, being me
Will I see the penitentiary, or will I stay free”

2Pac

A soft spotlight on some problems I have and questions I´m constantly asking myself

kind of a cartoonish abstract version of what I do and who I am or try to be

I make a guess:
Making art will solve all my problems soon!

It will make me free.

Even if I´m free already, it makes it more easy to bear this fucking, funny, strange, unbelievable, this very unsure thing thats called life

this was not serious
